

N. A. H. O. S. National Association of Jewish Child Holocaust Survivors:

THE RAGE TO LIVE

Book presentation by author Anna Andlauer

December 22, 2013 (Sunday) at 2:00 - 3.30 pm
Park East Synagogue, 164 East 68 Street, NYC

Historian and educator Anna Andlauer presents the story of young Holocaust survivors who were sheltered in an ancient Bavarian convent immediately after their liberation from the concentration camps. The Kloster Indersdorf Children's Center was established in July 1945 by a UN team and maintained a population of 613 children from over twenty nationalities. These child survivors were traumatized, orphaned, and homeless - longing for food and attention. To tell this little-known story, the author has tracked down 60 of the former children. Enhanced by historical photos and film clips, Andlauer's presentation offers insight into the creation of a therapeutic milieu for displaced children in the American Zone of post-war Germany.
